Why planning ahead matters

Planning ahead isn't about focusing on the end, it's about taking care of the people who matter most. Many people struggle to know what their loved one would have wanted, at a time that is already emotionally difficult. A pre-paid funeral plan gives clarity, removes uncertainty, and helps protect those you care about from financial worry.

Why it matters:

- 18% of people don't know how they'll pay for a funeral – leaving families vulnerable at a difficult time.¹
- The average cost of a funeral has risen over the last decade², planning ahead helps protect against rising prices.
- Knowing loved ones have left clear funeral wishes provides comfort and reassurance.³

Help protect your family from rising funeral costs

Funeral costs are higher than they've ever been. The average cost of a traditional attended funeral has risen by 146% since 2004 and now stands at £4,510.²

At the same time, many families are already feeling financial pressure. When a funeral hasn't been planned for, loved ones can be left having to make difficult decisions, both emotional and financial, at a time when they should be focused on supporting one another.

A pre-paid funeral plan helps remove that uncertainty. By planning ahead, you can set out your wishes clearly and help protect your family from unexpected costs, giving you peace of mind, and giving those you love the space and time to remember you, without added worry.

What a pre-paid funeral plan covers

A pre-paid funeral plan allows you to share your wishes and plan the essential elements of your funeral in advance. Plans are tailored to you, so you can make your own decisions.

What pre-paid plans can include:

- Funeral director services
- Choice of coffin
- Professional guidance for your family
- Transport for the deceased
- A contribution towards third party costs such as fees for cremation or interment, doctors and officiants.

Optional personal wishes:

You can also outline any wishes that matter to you, such as, music, readings, flowers, special touches, so your family can feel confident they're doing the right thing.

Why choose a pre-paid plan?

Everything you need to know

With a variety of funeral plans to choose from, it can be difficult to know which is best for your needs and budget. We've made a simple check list of things you need to know:

Who is eligible?

UK residents aged 18 or over can take out a plan. If paying by instalments of two years or more, eligibility criteria apply – please refer to the Terms and Conditions for more information. There are no medical or health questions to answer.

Can the plan include special wishes?

Yes, you can add special wishes and requests such as song choices, readings and information for a eulogy to name a few. There is no charge to add these details. If you have something specific in mind, speak to your funeral director as they will be able to let you know what is possible.

There may be more to pay if you require additional features, services or upgrades.

Can I buy a funeral plan for someone else?

Yes, many of our customers choose to do this.

What happens if I move to a different part of the country?

If you move, you should be able to transfer your plan to a funeral director near your new home. However, there may be additional costs depending on local prices. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions for details or speak to a member of the team for more information.

Can I change my funeral plan arrangements?

Yes, you can make changes to your plan after you have taken it out and fully paid for it. Just let us know what you wish to change. There may be an additional cost if you add new features and services to your plan.

What happens if I die abroad?

The plan does not cover the cost of a funeral abroad, or the cost of repatriating the deceased. It is therefore important that your travel insurance policy covers this.

Does the plan cover the entire cost of the funeral?

The plan covers the funeral director's costs that are listed in the plan details as long as your requirements don't change and your selected funeral director carries out your funeral.

The plan can also include an allowance towards third party costs such as the fees for cremation or interment, doctors' fees (if applicable) and payment to an officiant. These costs are outside our control.

If these costs, as listed in the plan details, are not covered by the plan value at the time of need, there will be a balance to pay. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions for more information.

Can I pay for my plan by instalments?

Yes, you are able to pay over a range of time periods. Please refer to the Instalment Q&A and the Terms and Conditions for more information. Eligibility criteria apply and there's an additional cost for paying over two or more years. We can provide you with a personalised quote.

Can I cancel my plan?

Yes, you can cancel the plan at any time before a claim being made. If you cancel within 30 days of receiving your welcome booklet, the person who paid for the plan will receive a full refund. If you cancel after that, the person who paid for the plan will receive a refund of the original amount, less the administration fee.

For instalment plans, if you cancel in the first 12 months a full refund will be paid. If you cancel after that, the administration fee and any payments to insure the plan will be deducted from the refund.

Please refer to the Funeral Plan Summary and Terms and Conditions for full details.
